GREAT VALUES

Men's $7.50 Overcoats

The Overcoats we sell at this price are made of heavy black jersey, cut full 44 inches in length, is well made and well lined throughout and fits as well as those you pay a much higher price for.

IT IS A "CORKER."

Men's $7.50 Suits

These Suits are made of all-wool cloths, extra heavy in weight, have fronts that will not break down, and will hold their color and shape. They are better suits than we ever before sold for this price.

Men's $2.50 WHOLE STOCK Boot

Do you know of any other store at which you can buy a genuine whole stock boot for $2.50? We don't. This boot would be called good value for $3.00 at most any store but this one.

THESE are some of the great values which are making business boom at this store this fall—such values as we are noted for giving.

Men's $2.50 Split Boot

Of course you want $2.50 Boots to wear around the house only. These are made from the same material as the whole stock boots. A man interested in work as a rule will apply to the other and not to the former. As we buy direct from the maker we can get 50 pairs of this Boot.

Roy's $1.50 SEAMLESS Shoe

This Shoe is made of extra heavy upper stock with two full soles, protected by steel tacks and is seamless—will not rip no matter how much mud and water the boy wades through. We claim that no one else can or does sell a shoe like this for this price.

Our WOMAN'S $1.50 COLT SKIN Shoe

This shoe is made specially for us out of a new stock. This stock while it is plump and will wear longer than grain leather, is as soft as kid and will stay soft no matter how long it is worn. You can not buy this shoe anywhere else in Frankfort, nor can you buy one as good. We have it in all styles.

On Tuesday last, Chief Justice which is the first time such an years. This was rendered possible by the law allowing the Judges to have law clerks and stenographers.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or overloaded.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests

what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

NOVEMBER THUNDER STORM.

We had a regular thunderstorm on Wednesday morning last. The heavens were black with clouds, it had been very warm for the season, and the thunder began to roll, the lightning to flash and the rain came down with a dash for about an hour.

In this strenuous age, one sometimes feels the need, not exactly of medicine, but of a good common sense revitalizer and tonic. Walther's Peptonized Port is just such a tonic.

The port wine is a strengthener in itself, and the pepson, by aiding digestion, enables one to get the maximum amount of strength from one's food.

It strengthens in a natural way—not by whipping the organs into a forced activity, not by creating a false feeling of strength through nerve stimulation, but by actually giving real strength.

fort, Ky.

A SPLENDID PRODUCTION.

Did you ever see the change from dead pallid old age into buoyant youth, from woe-begone forgetfulness to bright and energetic movements, from a heart that has been crushed with embittered thoughts to a personality imbued with every being youth's springtime blossoms in all its fragrance and beauty? If not, then it were advisable that you secure your holding at once to witness the presentation of J. M. Barrie's wondrous comedy "The Professor's Love Story," and watch the development of Professor Goodwillie as interpreted by Harry Beresford, one of the cleverest of the younger of American comedians. This young man will depict the Professor first off as the eminent, thoughtful dealer in facts and science, but who through love renews his youth and becomes a shrewdly unhappy, disconcerted man becomes rejuvenated and steps forth with youth again renewed and scattering around him an all-pervading feeling of happiness and joy and content. The expressive mobility of Beresford's face will be found something wonderful. Through it he depicts every feeling and every emotion that man is heir to, and through it he many times more makes his points than he does through his rich and melodious voice which purrs forth its pure and clean-cut English. The staging of the play will be most effective and the actors supporting Mr. Beresford will be among the best in their profession. At Capital Theatre, Monday, November 16.

FALL AND WINTER UNDERWEAR.

Our Underwear Department has been crowded with many inquiries, because we buy none but the very highest grades of goods, and before making our purchases we search the markets very thoroughly and get the very best prices, and are, therefore, able to offer these goods at correspondingly low prices. Now a very important reason why you should buy your fall and winter underwear here and now is that we will hold

A special sale of Underwear for women and children all this week.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

The following resolutions were adopted at the last meeting of Joseph H. Lewis Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, as a tribute of respect to the memory of Mrs. Mary J. Dudley:

Whereas, Death has taken from us one of our brightest and most efficient members, endearing our Chapter in the pall of grief; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we recognize the loss that we have sustained in the death of our sister and coworker, and that the South has been deprived of a true and loving Daughter, leaving vacant her place, not only in her home, but in her church and societies that she so faithfully filled, but that Heaven has gained another pure and Christian soul.

Resolved, That while we deplore the loss of this one of our noble members, whose memory will ever deck the pages of our history, we will strive to emulate her many virtues, and so live that we may meet again.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Roundabout and be filed in the archives of the Joseph H. Lewis Chapter, D. C., and that a copy be sent to her family.

in the book of memory: there is no such thing as a harmless cough. Every cough is a warning of a confidence that goes from bad to worse unless it is remedied right away. Opium-laden medicine is a delusion. Allen's Lung Balsam cures the worst of colds. It clears the bronchial passages, so that the lungs get plenty of air. Why not get a bottle to-day?

JAMES YOUNG-VIOLA ALLEN

After an absence of four years Mr. James Young will again be seen in the South, appearing in Miss Viola Allen's magnificent revival of "Twelfth Night." Mr. Young will play the part of Sebastian, the twin brother, to the Viola of Miss Allen. The elaborate production of "Lord Byron," which Mr. Young presented on his last Southern tour with his own company is still remembered for the poetical beauty of the play and the effective stage settings. During the past three years Mr. Young has created a number of important parts in the plays presented by Mrs. Fiske at the Manhattan Theatre, New York, and has appeared with Sir Henry Irving, making a tour of England, Scotland and Ireland, with the famous English actor.

On Tuesday morning two white convicts by the names of Alex Gibson and Jim Shotwell became involved in a struggle, in the course of which Shotwell cut Gibson in the neck and face narrowly escaping the jugular vein.

Gibson's wounds were attended to by Dr. H. L. Tobin, Prison Physician. Shotwell was placed in the dungeon.

PROMINENT AND GOOD MAN GOES TO HIS REWARD.

Prof. Jno. Augustus Williams, for many years the head of Daugler's College at Harrodsburg, Ky., died in that city on Tuesday last, at the advanced age of 78 years.

Prof. Williams was an able man and a Christian gentleman. He was a brilliant and attractive speaker, and was, for years, a lecturer upon Masonic subjects.

Verily a good man has gone to his reward.

SALVATION ARMY.

Staff-Captain Eseott and Capt. Barrett, of the Salvation Army, held a meeting at the Courthouse on Tuesday night, in which an account was given of the recent movement of that organization through the mountains of Kentucky and Virginia. Some very interesting statements were made showing the work done and the interest aroused.

A memorial meeting was held on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. Booth Tucker, recently accidentally killed in a railroad smash-up.

Mr. Carle D. Norman, right tackle of Central University Football Team, was so unfortunate as to have his right ankle broken in a practice game of foot ball at Danville, on Tuesday last. Mr. Norman is a son of Maj. L. C. Norman, of this city.

Editor Remondson:

Referring to the complaint made in your last issue that night service could not be had at the drug store here, let me say that, recognizing the importance of this feature of the business, I have always maintained a competent pharmacist at my store on the corner of Ann and Broadway, as well as one at the store of LeCompte & Gayle Co., South Side. Speaking tubes and night bells are provided at each place, that the public may be accommodated in emergencies.

I will thank any one who may be unable, in an emergency, to get in either of these stores, to let me know by mail with full particulars.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR GROUP.

(From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.)

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The group remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as horehound syrup and tolu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

A WOMAN'S COMPLEXION.

It is rank foolishness to attempt to remove wrinkles or grimesiness or the skin by the use of cosmetics or "fool" treatment, as advocated by the "beauty doctors." The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and cleaning the skin, and on our Liver is accomplished by keeping the Liver healthy and active. The Liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the Liver, cleaning and enriching the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most protracted and distressing case of dyspepsia and indigestion. New trial size, 25 cents; regular size, 75 cents. At all druggists, 25¢.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease. W. T. They cure biliousness, torpid liver, jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

STROUSE MEETINGS.

Rev. Clarence B. Strouse to Return to Frankfort.

In response to a petition from the men of Frankfort, Dr. Strouse, the Evangelist, who recently made such a favorable impression on the people of this city, has agreed to come back to conduct a revival. The management of the Opera House has tendered the use of the building, and this supplies an ideal place for the meeting.

The series will open with a big meeting for men only at 3 o'clock Sunday (7-morrow afternoon), but the other meetings, commencing Sunday night, will open to men, women and children.

It is intended to have fifty good voices compose the choir, assisted by Mr. R. V. Stratton, of this city, and a trained singer from Boston.

Petitions circulated among the women of the city have secured the prayers and support of the mothers, wives and sisters of Frankfort.

The preparation and direction of the meeting is a union effort on the part of the young men of the city of all classes. With such genuine interest as has been manifested by the young men the meeting could not fail to be a great success.

A SPLENDID ENDORSEMENT.

We give below a letter from U. S. District Judge W. H. Holt, of Puerto Rico, in regard to absolute necessity for new capitol buildings. It is a manly, straightforward and unanswerable statement of the case:

"San Juan, November 3, 1903.

"Hon. L. F. Johnson:

"Frankfort, Ky.

"Sir—Now that the location is settled, no more important question can come before the next Kentucky Legislature than the building of a new Capitol. It concerns every man, woman and child in our Commonwealth. When we see the Capitol buildings of other States—even those of the new States, like Colorado and North Dakota—we are ashamed of our own. It is an old rule, if it were individual property, the owner would undoubtedly be liable for its condition.

"The good name of the State, the needs of public business, and the prevention of accidents, that would be almost criminal, owing to its known condition, demand immediate action for a new building.

"As long ago as when I had the honor to be a member of the Appellate Court, we were fearful it would fall down on us, and the ceiling had to be propped. The legislative halls are ill adapted in every way; there are no committee rooms; the departmental offices, are utterly inadequate, and hardly fit for a tenement house in the low quarters of a city. When the legislature sits, clerk rooms in the city must be rented over saloons or wherever they can be gotten.

"The clerk's office of the Court of Appeals, where are records of inestimable value to the people, is insecure; the State Library is sadly lacking in room and the entrance ways to the Court of Appeals are little better than holes. The whole thing is a disgrace to the State.

"Frankfort is a beautiful, healthy little city, with a refined, hospitable people. It is a good location for the Capitol; none better in the State. I speak from experience, having lived there upwards of twenty years and with no pecuniary interest there whatever.

"I sincerely trust the next Legislature will heed the will of the people of the State; and for their sake, as well as that of our illustrious dead who are mostly buried at Frankfort, provide for a new Capitol.

"The interest a Kentuckian feels in his native and home State prompts this letter to you.

"Very respectfully,
"WM. H. HOLT."

FREE RECLINING CHAIR CAES.

"The Henderson Route"—Always First.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29, 1903. The traveling public will be pleased to learn of the latest innovation in the way of comfort in travel for its part, which is being offered by a line that most popular route, the "Henderson Route," which road has been rightly termed the "Kentuckian's Official Route to the West and Southwest."

It has recently been announced from the headquarters of the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway that they now have in service on their night trains between Louisville and St. Louis, Free Reclining Chair Cars, which have been received with great interest and are revolutionizing the car builder's art.

The cars are strictly up-to-date, first-class, "pathes of travel" on wheels, and this is only one of the many surprises which are promised the traveling public in their travel by the Henderson Route.

Among other advantages offered in these highly finished cars, a few of the most important points only are mentioned:

They are fully vestibuled and are upholstered with sixty-four reclining chairs, which are upholstered in beautiful green plush, in addition smoking and toilet rooms, the smoking rooms being finished throughout in oak.

They are also fitted up with triple lamps, which will do away with the jerk, jar and strain incident to travel in the ordinary railway coach, and insure a smooth, comfortable ride. This should prove a decided boon to the traveling public, and we can only suggest that traveling you "get the Henderson Route habit."

"Frankfort is a beautiful, healthy little city, with a refined, hospitable people. It is a good location for the Capitol; none better in the State. I speak from experience, having lived there upwards of twenty years and with no pecuniary interest there whatever.

A Pretty Taffeta Waist.

Separate waists are always in demand and this pretty bodice is no exception. It is made of a fine, light blue velvet. The yoke is lace and extending down the entire front is a broad lace band, which runs around the waist just under the arms, and is fastened with a bow in the middle. These bands of lace are very effectively finished with narrow black velvet ribbon, three rows of which also appear on the ends. The sleeves may be made elbow length with the deep cuff inset, same as the bodice. The waist is also generally made on a waist of this kind, which is made over an unbanded lining of thin blue silk, and is hooked under the arm.

Black is always a safe color for an elderly woman to select. Also soft shades of cinnamon and sand purple are very becoming to women with grey hair. These may be trimmed with white facings, the jacket often showing a band in front which gives a full effect. Crepe de Cuir is also much used and is desirably popular. A grey crepe de Cuir trimmed with black, or white, is most charming for an elderly woman, the white softening the severity of the dead black.

Often a person puts off taking needed tonic because of the disagreeable taste of most tonic preparations.

Therefore, the ideal tonic should be pleasant to the palate. Waller's Pepto-Tonic Port may justly claim the title of the ideal tonic, for in addition to being highly agreeable to the taste, it is a strengthener of greatest value, combining port wine, itself a tonic of noted efficacy, with pepsi which is nature's own digestive agent.

This preparation restores lost vitality and cures nervous prostration, indigestion and all kindred ailments. For sale by J. W. Gayle, Frankfort, Ky.

HELEN GRANTLY AS DONA
DOLORES "IN THE PALACE OF THE KING."

"In the Palace of the King" is a recent and famous a play to need very lengthy or particular description to induce theatregoers to attend a production, especially when the announcement goes forth that the beautiful and talented young actress, Miss Helen Grantly, will be seen in the principal role. The play ran for 200 nights in New York where it attracted much attention for its dramatic and picturesque power as well as for the magnificence with which it was staged.

"In the Palace of the King" is a dramatization made by Lorrimer Stoddard, of a novel by that popular and prolific novelist, F. Marion Crawford. The story, which is set forth lucidly and in melodramatic fashion, is briefly this:

The action takes place in the palace of Philip the Second, of Spain, in the year 1570. Dolores de Mendoza, daughter of the Captain of the King's guard, has loved since childhood Don Juan of Austria, half-brother to the King.

who, at the opening of the play, has just returned from a successful campaign against the Moors. Captain de Mendoza, a man of steep sense of loyalty to the interests of his profligate King, forbids his daughter to listen to the suit of Don Juan, and lest she discloses his inefficiencies to her lover, which ends in the apparent murder of Cardinal Luis de Torre by the King. Aghast at his deed, the King forces Don Juan to assume the guilt of the crime. Dolores declares his innocence publicly, though by doing so she sacrifices her own good name. Don Juan is condemned to death, but in the final scene Dolores secures his pardon by threatening the King with the disclosure of the real murderer's name. At the last the Cardinal, who it appears was merely stunned, enters, and the play ends with happiness to those of the characters who deserve it.

The play demands a lavish production, splendid scenery, rich costumes and a crowded stage. Manager James B. Delcher has acceded to the demands of the piece and surrounded his star with a large and efficient company, while the scenic environment will be the same that characterized Miss Viola Allen's production during her New York run. At Capital Theatre, Wednesday, November 18.
